Graceland Ministries Curriculum Agreement July 4, 2006

This is an agreement with Shari Morris regarding the purchase and use of curriculum written and published by Jay Bowyer and Colette Ladan and the Graceland Ministries Team. It is agreed that Shari Morris will purchase each curriculum for $70 payable in the form of a money order. She is then entitled to use that curriculum in her own classroom with her own students. She understands that it is a breach of this agreement to give this material to any other teacher to use or to use it for an entire school. The material purchased may be photocopied as often as needed for Shari Morris' students. Shari Morris should not give materials to students who will knowingly reproduce it without the permission of the writers.

This agreement is to be accepted by a sentence of agreement to the terms typed at the bottom of this document, returned by personal identifiable email.
